

1910-024 Chancery Causes: M. O. Combs for &c vs J. K. Orsburne &c
Lee Co.

Thomas, Orsbourn

CA-Debt

T-Property

To the Honorable H.A.W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia:

Humbly complaining, your complainant, M.O. Combs, who sues for the benefit of J.H. Thomas, would respectfully represent and show unto your honor that he on the 4th day of Sept. 1909, before C.D. Smith a Justice for Lee County Va. obtained a judgment against J.K. Orsburne and Leah A. Orsburn for the sum of $20.00 with interest from the 14th day of March 1909, till paid and $1.50 costs, on which judgment an execution has been issued, and returned "no property found"; said judgment has been docketed in the County Clerk's office in the Judgment lien docket said judgment, docketint execution return &c is here filed and made a part of this bill.

Your complainant alleges that the defendant Leah Orsburn is the owner of a tract of land situated in Lee County Va. near Cumbo, containing about 20 acres, and bounded by the lands of A.D. Scott and others known as the Hugh Irvine place; your complainant alleges that his Judgment is a valid lien against said land; that the rents and profits will not pay said judgment within five years. No part of said Judgment has been paid.

The prayer of your complainant is that the said J.K. Orsburn and Leah Orsburn be made parties to this bill and answer the same but not on oath, that being waived; that on a hearing said land be sold to pay your complainant's said judgment, there are no other liens known to your complainant, and your complainant prays for all other relief generally that the nature of his case may require or to equity seem meet and he will ever pray &c.
